FOREWARNED UNDER ATTACK

It has come as no surprise to us that we are being attacked from different angles.

The "Free Nation", paper of the Freedom Association (formerly the National Association For Freedom), representing that section of extreme Right Wing finance capital that has already thrown in its lot with landowner fascism, has devoted a whole page to fulminating against our policy of naming and isolating the fascists.

True to their unconscious class instinct their greatest horror is that our policy is arming the working classes (i.e. "the mob") with information. It enables them to take an active role in defending themselves from fascism. Long ago Marx, Engels and Lenin described the great fear that the bourgeoisie have for "the mob", i.e. the active proletariat. The "Free Nation" pleads that we have a effective police force to protect us from fascist violence - a bitter joke for those of us who live in deprived inner city areas where fascist violence rages unchecked by the LANDOWNER/BOURGEOIS state.

Forewarned has already written to the Home Secretary (no 3) calling upon him to use EXISTING anti-terrorist laws to ban fascist terrorist outfits such as Column 88 and its proteges. The reply totally ignored this call.

Today most immigrants and anti-fascists have no other way to defend themselves except to try to inhibit nazi violence by naming the fascists so that they know they are under public scrutiny. It is the thought that the workers can actively participate instead of delegating all authority to the state machinery that frightens the bourgeoisie.

The article was moreover libellous in its reporting of Dave Roberts conviction arising out of his infiltration of the National Front. HE NEVER CARRIED OUT, NOR CONTEMPLATED ANY ATTACK ON ANY INDIAN RESTAURANT. He was with a couple of fascists who decided to try to burn down the C.P.S.B. bookshop next door to an Indian restaurant. He was relieved when the plot was discovered before any criminal act could take place. The suspended sentence he received was later implemented after arrest for a token offence on an anti-fascist march. He was still in Stafford prison when the first issue of Forewarned appeared, which indicates how ridiculously misinformed (considering the F.A. counts George Kennedy Young, former head of NLF among its ranks) is the "Free Nation" article when it claims that Dave founded Forewarned. Forewarned predates Anti-Fascist Democratic Action and was continued on page 2

Ulster's 3 faces of fascist terror

It distresses us that some good comrades who claim to be Marxist Leninist are so confused over the question of Ulster that they mistake the Provisional I.R.A. for a progressive, anti-imperialist, national liberation movement. Whatever the Provisional I.R.A. may say about itself, its actions tell us more about its true class nature: the massacre of a bus load of Protestant workers at Bessbrook, countless bombs left in public transport, pubs, shopping centres in Britain and Ulster - AREAS FREQUENTED BY WORKERS, NOT BY THE RULING CLASSES, therefore aimed AT WORKERS.

This has alienated the vast majority of English AND IRISH workers, including most Catholics and ALL TRUE REPUBLICANS. The gangster protection racket and reign of terror imposed on all Irish workers benefits ONLY the British imperialists and landowners (who still own much land in both Ulster and Eire). The "state of war" enables the British to maintain the military occupation of Ulster and the severest economic repression of ALL IRELAND to go virtually unchallenged. Support of the Provisionals also constitutes a slap in the face to all the genuine Irish Republicans who are really fighting British imperialism in both Ulster and Eire. Needless to it is these people who suffer the brunt of the state repression and harassment during the "state of war", and if the state overlooks one, then the Provos are sure to get him.

founded in Charlton and only one issue has ever been edited anywhere else, number 5 which had to be sent away for printing. Rhodes Boyson may be interested to know that no 5's editor was educated at an old fashioned grammar school. If they do not like our style a good donation will improve it no end.

Other attacks have taken the form of obscure rumours on the far Right that we are working for "sinister foreign powers" (if we were we might actually get some finance) and even "black magic circles". Such ideas indicate tempting possibilities for discouraging superstitious fascists. But alas, although many fascists would be of far greater value to the British environmental heritage as natterjack toads, we are unable to effect the transmutation. Needless to say such rumours are all nonsense - and so long as we keep being attacked thus, we know we are doing O.K.

The international links of the Provos including the Italian fascist M.S.I., the German N.D.P., the international annual fascist festival at Dixmude and connections with several ex-S.S. men, show that their politics are a lot more nationalist than liberationist. When ever did U.S. capital support a genuinely progressive movement? Lenin, when praising the work of Irish workers' leader James Larkin, pointed out the folly of extreme nationalism that played into the hands of the imperialists.

Not long ago Ulster was famed for the progressive militancy of its workers. Since then ruling class inspired sectarianism has split them, all the more easily for each side having justifiable grievances. The Catholics are a doubly repressed and exploited minority, while the Protestants, also repressed and exploited cannot be blamed for reluctance to become part of Eire with some of the most reactionary anti-working class laws in Europe (no divorce, no contraception until very recently etc etc; low social benefits and high unemployment). However these laws are unlikely to be changed while the potentially powerful Ulster workers quit the struggle and try to opt out of being Irish.

U.V.F. RECRUITING IN EAST LONDON NOW

Rumours have reached us that, in response to the much publicised Provo assassination of Lord Mountbatten, the U.V.F. have started recruiting among Y.N.F. members in East London. Apparently the pay is £50 a week plus meals. One U.V.F. agent, a garrulous Scotsman with no front teeth who cannot hold his drink, was recruiting in the company of a Belgian or Dutchman, also on his way to Ulster. This leads to speculation as to whether the "package holidays in Ulster", formerly organised by Column 88 for Belgian V.M.O. fascists "with a guaranteed kill" have recommenced. Any Catholic will do for a victim. It seems that the rival fascist Provos and U.V.F. are happy to murder anyone but each other but preferably ordinary workers.

However we cannot overlook the most sinister threat of all, the terrorists that we pay to arm - the armed forces. They are controlled directly and absolutely by their officers from the landowning aristocratic class. Their role and attitude are crucial to any fascist coup. Their present role in Ulster is brutalising and fascising them in preparation for the time when their landowning masters feel so threatened by parliamentary land reforms that our industry needs so badly that they decide to back a fascist coup. Then the public face of British Fascism (the N.F., B.M. etc.)

 will provoke such civil strife that when the military step in to seize power, few will object. THE GREATEST DANGER OF ALL IS THAT THE N.F., B.M. ETC., WILL SO DIVERT
 ANTI-FASCIST ATTENTION THAT WE WILL BE

ROUND BRITAIN NEWS

LIVERPOOL Two British Movement members, Peter Cain and Stephen Norman each were gaoled for six months for desecrating a Jewish cemetery with anti-semitic slogans and a pigs head. The magistrate's chairman said that he could not remember a more offensive case.

CROYDON Stickers from the "National Re-organisation Party" have been appearing in the area. This appears to be a small group run by a man called Millard from a P.O. box in Tadworth, Surrey.

ISLINGTON Money was raised by N.F. workers at Upper St Post Office to pay for the deposits of 9 N.F. candidates. Much of it was raised under false pretences.

HOXTON Darrel Gebhard of Newquay Rd., Catford was fined £75 for possession of razor blades when he, with other British Movement colleagues whom he met at the Crown and Shuttle pub (where the B.M. had, a few days earlier, held a Hitler birthday party) in Bethnal Green, attacked an A.N.L. march. He had a previous conviction for an assault on a cloured bus conductor.

GLASGOW 600 local anti-fascists protested at a National Front election meeting held to support Scotland's only N.F. candidate, Mrs Isabel Skinner, at Allison Park on May 1st.

SOUTHALL We do not imagine that many of our readers still need to be informed of the extreme violence of the police in countering local anti-fascist demonstrators protesting at the very provocative N.F. election rally in Southall, in which anti-fascist Blair Peach was killed by the Special Patrol Group. There are just one or two media myths that we would like to comment upon: one myth - that the trouble was started by Asian youths when the N.F. arrived; in fact the police began harrassing locally resident Asian youths and generally stirring up antagonism as early as 10a.m. Another myth is that the trouble was all due to outside agitators (a pernicious argument - we must be careful that in countering it we do not concede our right to stand in solidarity with other anti-fascists anywhere in Britain or the world). In fact 95% of those arrested (all on charges relating to the police and entirely dependent on police evidence) were local residents. This is surely evidence that it was in fact the local working class population BOTH BLACK AND WHITE who were objecting to the insult of a nazi meeting in their midst, just as in pre-war Cable St.

CROYDON School heads in Croydon have been meeting the police to discuss the indiscriminate picking up of black youngsters on "sus" charges. They plan to meet again in November. This treatment of black youngsters is guaranteed to alienate and enrage the meekest and most law abiding of black children and their parents.

OXFORD Oxford A.N.L. held a successful well attended anti-fascist conference in June this year, prior to the national A.N.L. conference.

LONDON Two youths, shouting nazi slogans, attacked an A.N.L. stall and assaulted Bob Cox who was running the stall, in the Finchley Rd in July.

BIRNSLEY An A.N.L. activist received a death threat from the "88Brigade" after his letter, attacking the N.F., was published.

HIGH WYCOMBE The local C.R.C., A.N.L. and anti-racist committee held a successful disco at the Multi Racial Centre after it had been banned in a local pub on the grounds that the organisers were "political". The landlord of the Nag's Head, London Rd., where the original booking had been made, changed his mind and banned the disco after first having accepted it, knowing who the organisers were. It is thought that some pressure was brought to bear on him. The evening was simply a social event to allow young people of different races to meet socially.

BIRMINGHAM A.N.L. activist Barry Coleman had his photo taken by two strange men after his house had been burgled.

NORWICH 7 National Front members were gaoled after a campaign of violent attacks against anti-fascists and black people. Michael Howard was attacked after leaving a Rock Against Racism concert and received a broken skull. There was also a knife attack against a Nigerian, Mr Darko. One of their victims, whom they suspected of being an A.N.L. member was in fact a National Front member. His nose was broken. Nigel Woodbine was gaoled for 4 years, William Royal for 3 years, David Bell for 4 years and 3 months and others were given lesser sentences.

SHOREDITCH Exiled from their former haunt, the Blade Bone Bethnal Green, this year the British Movement booked the Crown and Shuttle near by for their Hitler birthday celebrations. Many wore military uniforms and carried assorted weapons. After the party was over two Asians were attacked on Liverpool St Station by men in nazi style para-military uniforms. Although police detained 8 men and confiscated items of nazi regalia and weapons, they did not charge any. Seven of the men were from Merseyside.

BIRMINGHAM For the second time collectors for LEFRA, the Leprosy Relief Association were denied access to collect money from the public in the Midlands area because their collection would have clashed with National Front public activities and, according to police advice, the collectors, whose symbols were a black head, would not have been safe on the streets. Police refused to guarantee their safety. This contrasts sharply with the massive police protection given to fascists. LEFRA is estimated to have lost about £150 which would have treated 30 child sufferers of leprosy for one year.

LEWISHAM At a pre-election meeting of A.L.C.A.R.A.F. all local candidates except the National Front attended and gave their support. However it is alarming that only one candidate, that of the Socialist Unity Party, had ever heard of Column 88 when a question was put to the platform asking whether the prospective candidates would press for the outlawing of Column 88 under the Prevention of Terrorism Act. Even worse, they did not appear concerned to discover what Column 88 is. This complacency is very dangerous in an area where 11th Hour Brigade thugs and arsonists have been particularly active.

BRISTOL Members of the T.G.W.U. 3/256 Bristol's Hospital branch were attacked by National Front members on 22nd of February after a meeting at Transport House. The branch has since sent a resolution to Bristol Trades Council calling them to support any Labour Party and Trades Union Movement opposing the anti-trade union National Front.

SOUTHWARK Anti-racist campaigners were fined for distributing leaflets attacking the National Front election campaign on the grounds that this gave unfair assistance to all the other candidates. Two men were fined £25 each with £21 costs. This is a very disturbing precedent.

CROYDON Black Star Line records of Croydon which specialises in Black music was vandalised in February of this year. £85 worth of damage was done and British Movement stickers were found on the remains of the window. We wonder if the vandals would care to visit the 3 record shops of B.M. leader Mr Calland on Merseyside which sell reggae at the front door and nazi literature by the back door.

ISLINGTON The Local A.N.L. and C.A.R.F. have been denied charity status by the local council in relation to using council facilities, on the grounds that they are political parties. Obviously they are political in the broadest sense. But their causes surely must unite as wide a political spectrum as most charities.

BIRMINGHAM The Star Social Club has been the victim of a fire-bomb attack. About 30 people were upstairs in the club at the time. Although there was extensive damage no-one was hurt. A large number of British Movement posters appeared in the area at the time.

Other targets of fascist violence, vandalism and arson have been the S.W.P. bookshop in Digbeth High St and the Communist Party bookshop.

BETHNAL GREEN Four young nazis have been gaolled for only one month each and bound over to keep the peace for the next two years for marching down Brick Lane, making nazi salutes and abusing Asians. They were convicted under the Public Order Act 1936. They were: Mark Bleach of Newbury Rd, Highams Park; Paul Daflon of Winchester Rd Highams Park; Richard Eaketts of Loxford Rd and John Mullane of South Park Drive, Ilford.

PLYMOUTH A National Front election meeting failed to take place after the meeting hall was occupied beforehand by local anti-fascists.

WEST NORWOOD Sena Asaf, aged 17 was murdered by two youths in a knife attack outside the Thurlow Arms on October 10th 1978. "It happened without any motive" said counsel.

CREWE Anti-fascist activists have suffered break-ins and N.F. smear leaflets, which have been distributed locally. Local A.N.L. spokesman Ian France believes that the burglaries were the work either of the N.F. or the Special Branch.

GREENWICH The Greenwich Campaign for Racial Equality held its A.G.M. on the 19th of May. It was addressed by Herman Ousely who spoke on the pioneering work being done by the London Borough of Lambeth in implementing Section 71 of the Race Relations Act. He also advocated positive steps towards the police to encourage them to follow the Devon police who have gone in for much greater community involvement and reduced crime in their area by 40%.

Also discussed was the conviction of anti-fascist students arrested after a B.M. attack on their dance at Thames

Polytechnic, WOOLWICH (reported in Fwd., no6). Fines and costs totalled £250 and a fund has been set up by G.C.R.E. at their office in Old Polytechnic St., Woolwich SE 18. Greenwich Trades Council immediately donated £25. It is proposed to keep the fund open indefinitely to cover similar circumstances in future.

LEICESTER 6,000 A.N.L. supporters marched out to oppose the N.F. on April 21st. Over 200 broke through a police cordon and put the N.F. march to flight. The original 3 mile planned route was reduced to ½ mile. Several fascists were injured by incensed local working class anti-fascists. Later 2,500 anti-fascists clashed violently with club wielding police in King St, S.P.G. vans were driven at the crowd, anti-fascists savaged by dogs, a dog van wrecked. Despite divisive attempts by a few to sabotage the demonstration, A.N.L. leader Paul Holborrow was cheered as he accused the counter marchers and timid anti-fascists who stayed in the Park making A.N.L. speeches of scabbing. Over 100 protesters were arrested as the demonstration broke up, more than 10 times the number arrested during the actual fighting.

LONDON A.N.L. demonstrators protested at an N.F. election meeting at the Caxton Hall on May 1st. The demonstration was very good in view of the fact that it was on the same day that the Greater London Trades Councils May Day March was held.

ROTTERHAM Two N.F. attempts to sell papers in the main shopping precinct have failed. On the second and last occasion, Cooper an N.F. pet miller (apparently their only one) so incensed local anti-fascists that he received a right battering. His 8 or 9 colleagues deserted him. The N.F. have not shown up there since.

SOUTH EAST LONDON Ethnic Community Groups in South East London have set up the S.E. London Action Committee Against Racist Attacks. This follows the racist murder of a 39 year old Bengali in Frances St Woolwich and many other local attacks on immigrants. There have been many assaults and Asian shops now find it necessary to keep strong mesh safety screens across their windows. The police, as usual, refuse to recognise any racial motives behind the otherwise motiveless attacks.

Tariq Ali spoke at the foundation meeting and regrettably spent the whole time attacking the white trades unionists and white population in general - a line not designed to lessen racial tension. In fact he attacked everyone except those responsible i.e. the nazi propagandists of the National Front. British Movement etc. Most of the attacks are carried out by youngsters who have grown up in working class homes where there is resentment against immigrants. However we do not doubt that the parents of these youngsters, despite their prejudices, would be horrified to find out what their children are doing at the instigation of nazis. Whatever the white working classes may think of immigrants, most can remember that the nazis dropped thousands of bombs on Britain and murdered millions upon millions of Europeans. They are horrified by nazism and can be drawn into the anti-fascist struggle on this basis. Insults and labels of "racist" etc will only drive them into the fascist camp.

NEW BRIGHTON, MERSEYSIDE Two people were arrested after scuffles as John Tyndall arrived to address a National Front election meeting.

LONDON The National Front H.Q. at Great Eastern St was protected by vast numbers of police from an anti-nazi demonstration on April 29th. Local Labour Councillor, Mr Patrick Kodriaka said that the police had effectively told us that they are on the side of the National Front and are prepared to go to any lengths to protect them.

Meanwhile the Great Eastern St H.Q. is under attack from another quarter. The local council is seeking to evict them because planning permission for alterations at Great Eastern St., was only granted for its development as a warehouse, not as a political H.Q.

SWANSEA The local Labour City Council is urged by local anti-fascists to reject an application from the National Front to use the Brangwyn Hall for a conference on October 27th and 28th.

WEST BROMWICH On the 28th of April a National Front election meeting was abandoned after 11 minutes after a demonstration by A.N.L. and C.A.R.F. members from all over the Midlands assembled and entered the hall. N.F. stewards illegally (under the Representation of the People Act) tried to forcibly evict anti-fascists from their so-called public meeting.

CROYDON Labour candidate John Bloom refused to speak at a pre-election meeting called by Sanderstead Council of Churches because he would not appear on the same platform as the National Front candidate. We commend his stand and wonder at the naivete of the Sanderstead Council of Churches in allowing a platform to the N.F. knowing that each time N.F. speakers open their mouths they threaten the rights of immigrants and others to live in peace and safety.

SOUTHALL Invitations to talks with Metropolitan Police Commissioner Patrick McNee were rejected by Martyn Grubb, leading Race Relations Worker because of present mistrust of the police.

PORTSMOUTH The former M.P. for Smethwick, racist Peter Griffiths has been re-elected as a Portsmouth M.P.. He defeated sitting member Frank Judd, a Tribune Group member.

BRADFORD 1,000 anti-fascists took part in a mass picket of the N.F. election meeting. Inexplicably, police did not move between the two sides for ten minutes. Only when fists and boots flew did they leap in to break it up, much to the N.F.'s relief.

Many A.N.L. supporters stood rooted to the spot, they were so astonished that the way to the N.F. was clear. In Leeds a similar incident took place last year and on that occasion it appeared that the younger police officers were irate with the N.F. because they had to work unsocial hours protecting N.F. leaders Webster and Brons.

YARMOUTH A full council meeting confirmed the ban on the N.F. conference imposed by an emergency meeting of a sub committee.

LEEDS Six of the defendants in the Fenton affray case have pleaded guilty at the Crown Court, all of them N.F. members or supporters. Two other fascists, including Eddie Morrison have denied charges. Also their victim, Wilcox was charged on leaving hospital. The prosecuting counsel was heard to declare his intention "to get Wilcox" - the only innocent man there. A fine example of British class justice in action.

ALL ANTI-FASCISTS ARE WARNED to beware of a Mr John Constadine, ex N.F. member (he left on discovering them to be anti-Irish) who has tried, using false pretences to gain confidences and members addresses from anti-fascists in Crewe, Manchester and Birmingham.

BIRMINGHAM The night-club "Pollyannas", owned by friend of leading local police officers, Eddie Fewtrell who operates a colour bar, has been picketted regularly by anti-racists. Typically it is the anti-racists who have been hounded by the police while law breaker Fewtrell goes untouched. An orderly demonstration was violently attacked on the orders of a senior police officer who was a personal friend of Fewtrell. One young woman teacher has since been threatened with the loss of her job after news of her arrest was featured in a local paper.

DARLINGTON N.F. chairman Tony Bruce was convicted on public order and weapons charges after threatening a West Indian cripple

Tyndall to go?

The internal N.F. struggle to get rid of their homosexual embarrassment, Martin Webster has now been extended to include John Tyndall. The campaign was recently given new impetus by Andrew Fountain's efforts to dismiss Webster. Both Webster and Tyndall have been taken to court by their own Social Club and banned from interfering in its activities. Martin Webster's friend, Michael Salt had been barred by the Club for his "unmanly" behaviour. He was replaced on the committee by Styles who has in the past complained of Webster's sexual preferences.

According to leaks, Fountain and his faction have majority share-holdings in N.F. properties and therefore can control the H.Q. at Great Eastern St.

Column 88 circles, including Robin Beauchaire, Jimmy Doyle and the Hancocks are now campaigning for Tyndall's removal. Via Fountain 88 controls N.F. property and are thought to be about to pressure Tyndall to either apologise to Fountain and sack Webster or to resign.

88 has a number of proteges waiting to replace gaps in N.F. hierarchy including Kavanagh, Brons, Verall, Bleach, Fountain, George Wright and Forsythe Grant and even current outsiders like Leslie Vaughan, Richard Lawson and Roger Clare. Harrison Broadly would probably remain president with Fountain, Verrall, Kavanagh and Brons being the leading team.

The League of St George is said to be working towards a new leadership and is also forcing splits within the British Movement. Leaving aside the recent crop of defections to Woman 18 in the North West, there is renewed activity in the South which may be to do with talks between L.S.O.G. and B.M. people begun in August. Ultimately the L.S.O.G. (in other words 88) sees leadership changes and mergers as the best long term plan for British fascism and "National Socialism".

Both McLaughlin of the B.M. and Webster are disturbed about all this. Webster has been all for increasing the proscription of the L.S.O.G. while McLaughlin has been insulting it.

Tyndall himself is using "Spearhead" to appeal to his lay membership as he has done successfully in the past. Only this time he is calling on his old nazi cronies to oppose nazis even more hard line than himself, and who control the N.F. properties.

Conspiracies, fascism, history and the occult

a guest article by "Mordecai Malignatus"

For the fascist, history is not rational, and change in history is not the effect of causes comprehensible to the reasoning human mind. Thus, for the fascist, the French and Russian revolutions were not the result of radical changes in the development of the means of production and a consequent shift in the balance of class forces in society but the result of the subversive activities of sinister conspirators. Thus for the late Admiral Barry Domville (founder of the pre-war pro-Nazi Link group and more recently a member of the National Front) his internment during the war was not the result of his fascist activities but part of a plot by Jewish conspirators as outlined in that notorious Tsarist forgery, "The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion". The Britons Publishing Society, publishers of Domville's autobiography was established in 1918 to distribute the English translation of the "Protocols". Now-a-days it is distributed by the British Movement's British Patriot Publications.

The theory of the Jewish world conspiracy as expounded by Julius Streicher, Henry Ford, Alfred Rosenberg (who introduced Hitler to the "Protocols") and other fascist "theoreticians" is well known and will not be dealt with here. However, for many fascists the Jewish conspiracy is not the only conspiracy and their nightmare world is haunted by a conspiracy of far greater magnitude, a conspiracy which is not political or socio-economic in origin but the work of powerful occultists - the conspiracy of the Illuminati.

Historically the Illuminati was a secret anti-feudal, anti-clerical revolutionary society founded in 1776 in Ingolstadt in Bavaria by Adam Weishaupt, a Jesuit turned atheist, turned occultist who apparently experimented with hallucinogenic drugs. According to one American far-Right theory, Weishaupt assassinated George Washington and took his place in order to place the Illuminati eye in the pyramid symbol on the U.S. dollar bill as part of some extremely complex and obscure plot.

The first mention of the Illuminati in the literature of the extreme Right is in a book "Proofs of a Conspiracy" written by John Robison, an ex-Freemason and Professor of Natural Philosophy, as an attack on the French revolution. According to Robison the Illuminati, "a conspiracy against all the religions and government of Europe", had survived the repression of the Bavarian authorities and were continuing their activities under the guise of Masonry. Today, Robison's book is published by the Christian Book Club of America and distributed in Britain by the British League of Rights - the British section of the World Anti-Communist League.

Another exponent of the view that the Illuminati were behind the French Revolution was Nesta Webster, a leading light in the British Fascisti of the twenties. With the demise of the British Fascisti, Ms Webster's books were distributed by Arnold Leese's Imperial Fascist League along with a work entitled "The Trail of the Serpent", which claimed to expose several occult conspiracies, a work described by occult "expert" David Conway as "rather silly". Despite the passage of years Ms Webster's turgid prose has retained its appeal for fascists and her weighty tomes are now-a-days distributed by, amongst others, British Movement, National Front, the Racial Preservation Society, and Robin Beauchaire's Historical Review Press. Just recently John Tyndall has recommended Ms Webster's work to the readership of "Spearhead". This is a little odd considering that in her book "World Revolution" Ms Webster seeks to prove that all Socialist groups are fronts for the Illuminati who are allegedly plotting with the German general staff to establish world domination by Germany.

Just how seriously Tyndall takes such theories is not known. However it is known that he has a mentor in occult affairs, one Peter Greenslade, a self-styled warlock who has carried out occult rituals at Stonehenge in celebration of Hitler's birthday. Greenslade has been involved in some of the more esoteric activities of Column 88 including the setting up of an occult temple dedicated to Hitler.

Even more popular in Fascist circles than Ms Webster's works are those of Gary Allen a "theoretician" of the American John Birch Society whose pamphlets are on the book-lists of far-Right groups from the B.L.R. to the B.M. In one of his pamphlets Allen claims that the Illuminati were headed by Cecil Rhodes and were aiming at world domination by the British empire. In an attempt to rationalise the absurd conspiratorial theory of history Richard Harwood "Loki" Verall attacks Allen for this (Spearhead October 1977). He does not attempt to explain the contradiction between the views of Webster and those of Allen.

Far Right theories about the Illuminati do not end there. Some trace them back to the Knights Templar and Hashissin of the Middle Ages and even beyond to the mythological Atlantis, which, according to Rosenberg, was the birth-place of the Aryan race. Such theories claim that every figure of world importance from Goethe and Beethoven to Nixon and Mao and Hitler were Illuminati agents and that every event in history from the Russian revolution to the assassination of U.S. nazi leader Lincoln Rockwell was their work. Some even claim that Ian Fleming portrayed them as Spectre in his James Bond novels and so they had him murdered. One far Right publication, the grossly misnamed "High I.Q. Bulletin", claims that the Illuminati are invaders from outer space who have come to help the Jews "in their war against the Aryans".

The latest exponents of the Illuminati conspiracy are a fascist group in Namibia who claim that the Muldergate scandal was their work and that their leader is John D. Rockefeller, a view shared by the Birchers.

Nor is the Illuminati conspiracy the only occult theory circulating in fascist circles. Recently the B.M. distributed a book which claimed that flying saucers were the work of nazi scientists who had set up secret bases inside the earth, which is supposedly hollow. In America the Church of Satan, which includes in its ritual verses of the nazi poet Dietrich Eckart, has attracted considerable support from members of the Ku Klux Klan and the Nazi Party. Curiously enough, the Church of Satan claims that the Nazi S.S. maintained the "magical repertoire" of the Illuminati! In Britain the ancient norse religion has been revived by an Odinist Committee. Contributors to its journal, the "Raven Banner" include Colin Jordan, Brian Baldwin (who is thought to be connected with Column 88) and Sonia Hochfelder, formerly of the N.F., the National Party, the League of St George (which carries adverts for Odinist publications in its review) and, currently, the Tory Party. Other extreme Rightists have infiltrated the Pagan Front which preaches an eclectic brand of muck and mysticism.

From its earliest days nazism had strong occultist connections. Hitler, during his days as a tramp in Munich, was an avid reader of the anti-Jewish and occultist journal "Ostara". Other nazis, amongst them Hess, were members of the occultist Thule Society (Thule being a nordic Atlantis). Hitler, who was claimed as a member by the occultist Order of New Templars, changed the swastika on the nazi flag (which was designed by an occultist dentist) from an occult symbol of good fortune to one of evil and black magic. When the nazis came to power the occultist German Ancestral Heritage Society was incorporated into the S.S. This body not only spent its time investigating the occult meaning of Gothic spires and top hats at Eton but also carrying out sadistic experiments. It is hardly surprising that the occult should have an attraction for nazis when one considers the racist theories of history constructed by occultists such as Madame Blavatsky (who has also been included in the ranks of the Illuminati!).

It goes without saying that such theories are totally without basis in fact and have an appeal only to seriously disturbed minds. The only conspiracy of which there is proof is the conspiracy involving criminal nazi thugs and the most reactionary sections of the ruling classes to provoke the social instability which will give the excuse to carry out a military coup d'etat. It is time this conspiracy, which seeks to drag humanity back into a Dark Age nightmare of famine, war and lunatic mysticism which must be fought by all who value liberty and truth.

MADRID A bomb placed in a public street by Right Wing terrorists killed a young woman and wounded other members of the public.

U.S.A. John Tyndall has been touring the U.S.A. addressing meetings of the National States Rights Party (a nazi party). For fuller details see "Searchlight" no 51.

During the tour he made no attempt to conceal his anti-Semitism and belief that "Hitler had been betrayed by the West".

GERMANY A book the "Crime and Punishment of I.G. Farben" by Joseph Bökin, recently published by Deutsch, revealed that top scientist of the Farben Chemical company which sited a rubber plant at Auschwitz and used slave labour, Fritz ter Meer, who was convicted at Nuremberg of "plunder and slavery", became, on his release, from a 7 year sentence, chairman of the supervisory board the giant Bayer chemical company.

NAMIBIA Right Wing extremists have been carrying on an unchecked terrorist campaign against the proposals made by the United Nations and agreed by South Africa for the independence of Namibia (over which South Africa has no LEGAL jurisdiction whatever). They also recently attacked a Freemasons' lodge in Windhoek.

FRANKFURT 40,000 anti-fascists prevented Nazis from using the "National Day" as an excuse to celebrate the "glories" of Hitler. Members of many anti-fascist groups took part and a Rock gegen Rechts (Rock against the Right) festival was held on the outskirts of the city. They turned out in spite of a ban by the conservative local council on city centre meetings. The city centre was occupied by tanks and the Bundesgrenzschutz (S.P.G.) who prevented the local T.U.C. from meeting.

DECATUR, ALABAMA 500 national guardsmen state, county and city police were needed to protect an estimated 300 Ku Klux Klan members on a march through the streets of Decatur, Alabama wearing their long "wizard" robes.

VIRGINIA The Bishop of Wheeling-Carleston in West Virginia affirmed that membership of the K.K.K. or any group espousing and promoting racial hatred was incompatible with Christianity. This statement was endorsed by the local senate of priests.

Rumour has it that the British Movement deliberately selected the Crown and Shuttle, a Truman's pub, as their new "H.Q." since being turned out of the Bladebone, in order to discourage anti-fascist infiltrators, especially those who like beer.

Congratulations to Tyndall on the birth of his daughter Helen, commiserations to the poor infant on her sorry allotment of parents. Now we wait eagerly to see how many other N.F. figures have the ability (in the case of Verrall, the breath, after all his smoking) or the inclination (in the case of Messrs or Misses, Webster, Fenwick, Salt et alia) to follow the example of their leadership.

Recently a student doing a project on political propaganda called on Excalibur House. He was told to "F... off you f..... student or I'll set my men on you". True Nazi propaganda at its finest. At least they cannot be accused of trying to win friends and influence people.

The League of St George Review has been getting all bothered about N.U.T. efforts to combat sexism in schools. They are afraid that men who can cook and sew are bound to end up as pansies. They should tell the scouts - who have been teaching boys self reliance for years, and all those cruel sergeant majors who have made mock of poor squaddies who cannot sew on a button or boil an egg without mumsies help. Anyone who is so worried about their sexual identity that they feel threatened by being taught how to look after themselves independently of the opposite sex, and to whom sexual identity is the be all and end all of their personality, has real problems.

Did you hear the one about the "elite" Belgian S.S. division that made a heroic last stand on the Eastern Front? They had nothing left but grenades to throw. Only the rotten Red Army kept taking the puffs out and throwing them back. We dedicate this to Joseph Mussche with thanks for the little note from him, or his friends in the N.S.W.P.I. at 12 Acorn Rd., Dublin 14. They enclosed a picture of Hitler with a bit of chat about treachery. Well, the man who organised the night of the long knives, who feasted in Berlin and Berchtesgarden while his troops died in thousands trapped outside Stalingrad, who watched the German nation slowly starve in degradation and filth rather than lose personal pride by surrendering, certainly knew all there is to know about treachery. And Mussche, a Belgian who more than collaborated with the Nazi invaders of Belgium, who served in the S.S. knows a fair bit too.

Verrall's been at it again, trying to get all intellectual and theoretical. According to some of his latest writings the upper classes are upper because they are genetically superior, not because they are better con-men and gangsters. I.E. if I can contrive to steal what you have worked to produce that is your hard luck because I'm better than you. I wonder then what the results of the battles of Alamogordo, Moscow and Kursk prove - in all of those the German generals were undoubtedly aristocratic and the Allied Generals humble commoners. Does this line of Verrall's mean that if someone thumps him or steals from him he will accept it philosophically because that proves they are superior to him? Go back to your abacus and have another go at counting the number of Europeans killed by the Nazis, Richard Harwood Verrall, and leave thinking to the grown ups, before someone takes your ideas to their logical conclusion on you.

The National Association For Freedom (N.A.F.F.) has changed its name to the Freedom Association. Only they could make the initials F.A. stand for something worse than they did before. It is rumoured that it was the question of initials that deterred the founders of the National Front from calling it the British Front. Maybe the F.A. is not so sensitive, or maybe they were fed up with being confused with the N.F.

Organisational news: proposed conference

Forewarned has been suffering some severe problems recently. Our editorial team is just too small to cope with all that is needed. The long delays between each issue highlight our shortage of money and people. It is a vicious circle, with too few people, as street sales are badly hampered and we lose money. Yet we have many supporters who want to buy our paper and like its news content very much. What we lack are formally committed supporters. Most of the people who buy our paper are already involved in the anti-fascist and class struggles generally and are formally committed to other organisations. As we are seeking to promote broad anti-fascist unity we are glad of this.

However, we do have our own needs to look to. And we do have our own Marxist Leninist outlook which we know very well, is not supported by all of our readers.

Anti-Fascist Democratic Action was founded after Forewarned to organise formal support for the paper and activities and to promote anti-fascist organisation on an industrial basis. But alas it has remained very small and producing the paper has really been the most it can cope with so far. A better larger organisation is needed. We must draw in other anti-fascists.

Yet near we have another problem. Forewarned was founded, not to duplicate the role of "Searchlight" or "C.A.R.F.", nor was A.F.D.A. founded to try to duplicate the role of the A.N.L., that would be divisive and destructive. We set out to fill a definite gap in the anti-fascist movement - to promote an analysis of the nature and causes of fascism which indicates an alarming danger of a military fascist coup under conditions of economic crisis and rocketing land prices which prevail in Britain now. Under the circumstances we MUST bring this analysis and our conclusions to the attention of the anti-fascist movement and the progressive and democratic classes in Britain NOW.

Yet we know that most of our readership, while being open minded and considering our analysis, are not yet convinced enough to commit themselves formally to supporting us on this basis.

So we must appeal to a broader spectrum of anti-fascists than would support our analysis, to support us on the basis of our news service at least, while insisting that our comrades concede to us that Forewarned shall continue to draw attention to our analysis of the nature and causes of fascism. Also we are well aware that many of our non-Communist readers and supporters do not agree with our attitude to the Soviet Union. Fair enough, we are more than willing to work with anyone else whatever their attitude. But we must insist on being able to maintain our own. So we are calling a conference but making certain minimum demands on all delegates: that they shall recognise that we must continue to propagate our analysis of the nature and causes of fascism although they may not quite agree with them; that we intend to build an organisation to co-ordinate Communist Anti-Fascists to strengthen the broad anti-fascist movement; by combatting ultra-left falsifications of history; by monitoring and publicising all fascist activity in order to combat it; to co-ordinate our activity with the international anti-fascist movement; above all to promote workplace based anti-fascist organisation. We appreciate that we are unlikely, on this basis, to get many applications for credentials from outside the Communist movement, but as we said, we are not aiming to build a broad rival to the A.N.L.

Conference documents are under preparation and will be published soon. The conference is to be held in the New Year, possibly Easter, in the Midlands (Birmingham or Coventry). We welcome sponsorship from individuals and organisations. We welcome both individuals and organisations to the conference. But we have to organise the voting allotment to give organisation representatives, especially those that are industrially based, a vote that reflects their sponsors. As we cannot give anyone less than one vote then all individuals attending must have one vote each. Area based organisations shall be entitled to one vote for each of their members, to be used by delegates (one delegate for every ten members or part thereof). Industrial Workplace based organisations shall be entitled to two votes per member to be used by as many delegates as they can get to the conference. Once the organisation (we have several names already suggested: the FWD support group; Red Front; Communists for Anti-Fascist Unity et alia) is founded individual members will work as part of organisation units. Margaret Thatcher continues, on behalf of international finance monopoly capital, to dismantle British industry, no longer needed by the multi-national monopolists, and the welfare state that was supported by it. The landowners are not concerned unduly - landownership in itself conveys wealth and power more valuable than mere money - so long as they are left alone and no one tries to save our industry by means of land reforms to lower all rents and thus decrease production costs. As it is money is pouring out of industry to buy safe land, pushing up its price and well pleasing the landowners. As far as both financiers and landowners are concerned the British workers are now by and large redundant and the welfare state can be safely abolished.

Will not the workers fight back?

We sincerely hope so. But the great danger is that opposition will be contained and headed off by the emergence of some Left Wing Social Democrat demagogic figure, who will say all the right revolutionary things and issue all the right slogans to win the support of our cheated and enraged workers. But, being a Social Democrat, i.e. one who sees politics in purely narrow parliamentary terms, will contain and channel all the opposition within a parliamentary context where it can achieve nothing and the ruling classes know they have nothing to fear.

This happened before with the Housing Finance Act in 1974. Local Labour Councils took a lead in the struggle against the bill before any spontaneous opposition could arise, contained and channelled all opposition, and then at the last minute, when it was too late to organise any real opposition, they capitulated and threw the movement into chaos. This is a very effective ruling class strategy and we hope that enough workers will be wise to it by now. If not it is our task to remind them. The tragedy is that this strategy always puts genuine class struggle fighters in a position of having to criticise the existing organised opposition, and open to accusations of splitting, but it is no crime to split from a policy of repeated treachery.

Entry will be by credentials only, obtainable in advance to bona fide anti-fascist and working class organisations and individuals, with further details from 45, Gooding House, Valley Grove, London SE7 8AT

NEWS EXTRA

ASPBORNE, DERBYSHIRE Once again fascists are resorting to booby trapping their posters and stickers with razor blades behind them to injure anyone trying to remove them.

IRON AND STEEL TRADES CONFEDERATION A motion condemning National Front provocative activities and stirring up of racial hatred was passed at their 1979 conference. WOOLWICH 18 year old Fred Archer has been charged with the murder of 39 year old Palak Mazumdar on the 12th of June near Woolwich Dockyard Station.

LEAMINGTON Having been banned from Great Yarmouth the N.F. started to look towards Leamington as a possible conference venue. At once local anti-fascists began to organise opposition.

ISLINGTON Anti-fascists were denied their right to enter an N.F. pre-election meeting under the Representation of the People's Act although about 450 seats remained empty. One of the 30 (out of 500) anti-fascists eventually allowed in was assaulted by N.F. thugs led by Derek Day.

SHEFFIELD A Miners Against the Nazis conference was held in Sheffield Polytechnic in February. The miners have a long history of active anti-fascism.

NORTHAMPTON The lead of the Northampton branch of the T.G.W.U. (Road Hauliers Section) in instituting a boycott against loads to and from Chile has been taken up by the rest of the Union at a successful meeting on Chile chaired by Brian Nicholson. The meeting also agreed to take measures to adopt, and agitate on behalf of, trades unionists who have disappeared in Chile.

LAMBETH The local council decided to hold their own enquiry into police-community relations in spite of Scotland Yard's plan to hold a "more general survey" costing £20,000 and taking 2 years. "It will be a case of the police calling the tune as usual" said one Lambeth Community Worker.

BIRMINGHAM Birmingham A.N.L. held a successful conference prior to the national A.N.L. conference. Dave Roberts spoke, but we note that the advance publicity was incorrect in describing him as the founder of Forwarned. It would hardly have been possible since he was in Stafford gaol at the time. We realise that this is a simple error and we hope that Dave corrected it. The Charlton Forwarned team have been involved in an enormous amount of work, launching Forwarned and keeping it going. BALHAM A 61 year old diabetic woman victim of an N.F. assault was arrested with 6 other anti-racists! And the Free Nation claim we have police protection from racism!

DON HOLLYHILL IS EXPLAINING HIS LATEST THEORY TO DICKY TRUE-BOOTS

It's not really the Jews and Reds who are to blame. They're just frontmen.

Then who?

The ones who are really behind the world conspiracy are the RABBITS! They're behind everything decadent!

Achdo here, hassa!

They're all in it: Peter Rabbit, Brer Rabbit, Bugs Bunny. They corrupt us from the cradle.

I never thought of it like that.

The worst ones have webbed feet. They're from Atlantis! They can turn into black goats or even Wendi go with hot feet!

What's so special about rabbits? I can turn into a dolphin.

MEANWHILE IN THE NEXT OFFICE MARTA HARI-SPIDER HAS JUST OPENED A LETTER

An invitation from a Cassandra Lowfester. Strange letter heading The League of St Arri? Did he fight a dragon?

LEAGUE OF ST. ARRI
Rock hard there for ever more

Dear Wizard (L)
Please meet me on Friday 7th December at Castle Aryan Rod at midnight. I have some secrets to tell. Cassandra L.

Oh dear! It's not for me. It's for our pal, the wizard who lives at the back end of the 99L bus route.

I know his real name.

DICKY TRUE-BOOTS GOES TO SEE VETERAN SUPER HERO MANLEY SQUIRT IN HIS NORFOLK MANEION

Hollyhill's going crackers about rabbits. And we've still got the problem of Marta.

Why not send her to visit our comrades in Castle Aryan Rod

Where's that?

Even further North than Leeds. With Luck she'll never get back from this one.

I'll try it.

A WEEK LATER
Back so soon Marta?

Well, I didn't quite get there. At the station a man called Grivola came to meet me. Cheeky thing called me Ernie Roma. So I came straight home.

Still no luck! No one does what I say. No one understands my great historical role. I'll just have to keep on waiting.

Oh dear what can the matter be.

Arsenal didn't play Leeds again Saturday.

It's cold there.
